

LPRO: Legislative Policy and Research Office

PUBLIC HEALTH FACTS

BACKGROUND BRIEF

The Oregon Public Health Division (OPHD) works to protect and promote the health of Oregonians and the communities where they live, work, play and learn. OPHD maintains data on multiple public health conditions and issues. The following are several “at-a-glance” health conditions and issues that have been updated and highlighted for this publication. If you need information on other topics, such as cancer, injury, childhood lead poisoning, and HIV/AIDS, etc., please contact the Public Health Division staff at the Oregon Health Authority:
